

EASINGWOLD LIONS CENTENNIAL MARCH & HYMN TUNE CONTEST

in Association with
YORKSHIRE & HUMBERSIDE BRASS BAND ASSOCIATION

Contest Information

Thank You for your interest in the Easingwold Lions Centennial March and Hymn Tune Contest.

The Contest will take place on Saturday June 2nd 2018, 1st band to march off at 5pm, last band to march off at 8.45, with an anticipated conclusion (all results and prizes handed out) of 9.30pm.

A pre-draw will take place on the May 5th. All entries must be received by midnight on May 4th. Provision has been made to allow any bands entering the Ripon Entertainment Contest to receive favourable draws in both contests to allow for a 'day out' contesting.

The March will begin on Tanpit Lane, turning left and following the Market Square anti-clockwise until level with the The George Public House.

Any questions, please ask Garry Hallas, Contest Controller, 07732 396776, or garryhallas@hotmail.com.

Prizes:

Championship, First, Second, Third and Fourth section 1st prize will be £200. Further prizes may be added dependant on entries.

Championship, First, Second, Third, Fourth and Unregistered bands will all receive a trophy for winning their section.

There will be a £100 prize for the best Marching Band, determined by combination of Marching and Playing on the road.

The Overall Champion band will also receive a further prize of £100 and trophy.

Further prizes may be added as funding is secured.
